ANDREW WITHAM

Access to Higher Education Diploma - Science & Nursing

Andrew had been out of education for almost 20 years when he joined CWA, having been a househusband.

Andrew's background was working in the RAF and he decided to return to learning to start a new career.

Completing the Access to Science & Nursing course enabled Andrew to do just that, and he secured a place studying Diagnostic Radiography at Bangor University.